1. Workshops

During the time frame of this project we have conducted 6 workshops.

Event Date, Place	Who involved from project	Description
OCWC Global Conference 2012  16 Apr 2012 Cambridge, UK	Complete team	Workshop on Scenarios for the promotion of virtual mobility by using OCW The workshop was open to all participants in OCWC 2012 Conference, specially to those ones with experience, knowledge or interest in mobility and about the preconditions for a well-functioning OCW program, or who are considering the use of OCW for virtual mobility (for example people involved in joint degree programs). Report: http://www.opencourseware.eu/page19356/16-april-2012-workshop-on-scenarios-for-the-promotion-of-virtual-mobility-by-using-ocw
Stakeholder workshop KU Leuven  29-30 May 2012 Leuven, Belgium	Fred, Stephanie, Willem	We found it important to organize an internal workshop on WP3 early on in the project. The workshop activities were streamed online so that project members who were not able to attend physically could nonetheless contribute in the discussions. Moreover, a number of interested external parties were involved: a representative of the VLOER initiative at the Flemish level, someone from University of Granada and the University of Leiden (see the minutes for details). More information: http://www.opencourseware.eu/page15286/29/30-may-2012-stakeholder-workshop-leuven
Workshop Barcelona  19-20 Sep 2012 Barcelona, Spain	Complete team	Workshop and Training on Open Content licensing in Europe The main goal of this two-day event was to clarify legal issues with regard to regulations that govern the ownership and use, reuse or modification of educational resources, which are produced at Higher Education Institutions in Europe. A direct focus is placed upon copyright. Participants will learn about the meaning of the open content licensing framework for OpenCourseWare & Open Educational Resources. They will gain practical skills on how to use such frameworks, through the utilization of Creative Commons licenses, to license and disseminate their own content or to use, reuse or modify educational content produced elsewhere. Workshop Madrid  11-12 June, 2013 Madrid, Spain	Complete team	Benefits, Scenarios and Guidelines for Higher Education Institutions, Teachers and Students The main goal of this two-day event is to showcase and discuss scenarios and guidelines with regard to how OpenCourseWare (OCW) can facilitate student virtual mobility in the European Higher Education context. Removal of barriers to mobility in Higher Education has been identified, by the European Union, as one of its strategic priorities. This two-day event is organized within the context of a project entitled OpenCourseWare in the European Higher Education Context: How to make use of its full potential for virtual mobility, which is supported through the Life Long Learning Programme of the European Union. The main aim of this project is to showcase practices, develop scenarios and recommendations for successful implementation of OCW with an aim to improve student virtual mobility. 55 people participated in the workshop                      More information: http://www.opencourseware.eu/events/madrid-workshop
OCWC Global Conference 2014  22-24 April 2014 Ljubljana, Slovenia	Complete team	Workshop: Getting started with Open Education: Everything you need to know to begin open education projects at your institution This one-day interactive workshop will introduce you to principles, tools and techniques that will allow you to get started with open education at your institution or organization. Participants will gain practical knowledge of the benefits and potential pitfalls in starting projects, convincing faculty and administrators, and integrating open education into institutional practice through examples from institutions around the world. 30 people participated in the pre-conference workshop. Open Education Week 2013	12 March 2013	Willem van Valkenburg	Webinar: OpenCourseWare in the European Higher Education Context: How to make use of its full potential for virtual mobility This webinar will introduce participants to an European Project: "OpenCourseWare in the European Higher Education Context: How to make use of its full potential for virtual mobility" The focus of the project is on the creation of preconditions for a strong European OCW-framework. A stronger framework will also mean closer cooperation between European institutes, which may result in mutual use of material and even joint degrees. A better functioning OCW-system will enhance quality and increase the usage of online courses and therefore facilitate virtual mobility. An objective in itself, but it may also result in a decline of obstacles to cooperation and therefore an increase in real student mobility. Webinar recording: http://youtu.be/YqDPjEDwDY                      Webinar slides: http://www.slideshare.net/ocweu/20130312-ocw-europe

Digital Humanities Summer School 2013	18-20 September 2013 Leuven, Belgium	Fred Truyen	New digital evolutions are increasingly affecting humanities research and education since the final quarter of the twentieth century. Online resources, data sets, electronic teaching environments, open access publishing, data visualisation and data capturing have become ubiquitous. Therefore, the KU Leuven Faculty of Arts has consciously chosen to support DH developments as part of its research policy. The Summer School is organised in association with the Doctoral School of the Humanities and researchers from the UA, VUB and UGent. Three full days of lectures and showcases will be held on Speech and Language Technology for Research in the Humanities and Social Sciences (CLARIN), Text editions and E-Publishing/Learning and MOOCs. 120 people participated in the event.
